To: Thomas Merton

Thought you would like to see the attached piece,
which appeared last Sunday in the Times Magazine.

Appalling is the word, though the author indicates a real awareness of the economic problems (how inadequate
a word!) which beseige the third world nations.

You might find it worth doing a letter to the editor of the Times Magazine, if you feel so moved. Certainly some sort of response ought to be made by someone.

Haven't received any of your mimeos in recent months.
Could you add me to that list once again? I do benefit from them. Use the new address.

Much love.

Jim
