Dear Dorothy Dohen:

We are neighbors in this month's Critic and I must say that I was sorry to see the review you got. I have not read your book, but I sense a certain unfairness in the treatment given you. If it is any consolation, let me say that in a letter of Archbishop Helder Camara the other day I was told that your book was "prophetic" and I have a hunch that he has a clearer vision than your reviewer on this point. Is there any chance of seeing a copy? I'll send you either one of mine you would like. Or both if it comes to that.

My warm good wishes. In faith and prayer for peace on earth.

Cordially yours in Christ,
