Dear Father Tom! —

Many thanks for the quick return of the copy. It goes to the printer this afternoon.

Yes, I'll give a galley to Mr. McDonnell just as soon as possible. He has written me, and we had a short talk on the telephone.

We need our authors five copies of the issue their work appears in as a matter of retention, but we are always glad to send as many others as there is use for. Please let me know how many you would like.

I'm making a note that you would like 20 of the Parden crucifixes, + will see about getting the wooden covers made at once.

Cordially,

Graham.
