Abbey of Gethsemani
Trappist, Kentucky

Dear Tom:

After turning my book shelves, at home and office, upside down in the search for my copy of Peace in the Post-Christian World, I have come to the conclusion one of your fans has taken it on permanent loan.

Unfortunately, I have used it as reference a number of times and feel a little lost without it. Do you have a copy I could borrow, or an extra? We could xerox one here and return it to you.

Your God picture which Linda has is a wonderful thing and has brought us much delight. Oh that we layment could see such wonders. At least His attitude to technology is somewhat clarified by your revelation.

Enjoy the snow.

Love,

Jim
