Dear Tom,

Tom Cornell, a long standing friend of Jean's + mine, one of the founding fathers[?] of CNVA's Polaris Action (he taught school near the apt/misile base), spent last night with us in our new apt - first guest.

One of the things he mentioned was a group of SAFE members (you remember those posters) are memoing up the Peace Book. I trust you are aware of this; in the event you are not please let me know - I imagine they plan to distribute it privately.
I had heard nothing about it previously.
Have you put any revisions into the edition they are putting out?

I continue to find Albert Woodcraft the most engrossing master poem/novel I have read!

Are there any copies available of a book of yours Vic Hammer printed up on Solitude? The cover starts, "If you seek a heavenly light, I Solitude am your professor..."

I agree completely with your comments on the superficiality of the Posters. Generally this direction appears to be in progress in most areas of the peace movement: the effort to build a superficial society on its own terms. Perhaps it will accomplish something. Without deep roots, however, it seems wasted, however.

I have sent copies of certain letters ^{of yours} to a friend in the Bida seminary in Rome - at his request. You seem to be a figure of great interest there - and the moral problems of war seem to have entered their thinking more because of your CW articles.
He assures me he shall use ~~due~~ care in ~~his~~ use of the letters. Dave Kerk is his name - an ex-editor of the Catholic Worker.

Best wishes in Christ.
