Dear Father Louis -

your letter and manuscripts came while Karl Stern was staying with us and he was so happy to get your good words about his book.
Caroline Gordon Tate liked it very much too. The review in the Times was not good.

Our PAX week end was very good thanks to Jim Douglass. He has been urging me to go to Rome to try to reach the bishops directly and at that very week end a friend gave me $500 to go. So I beg your prayers. We will be there by the 15 of Sept. ... Martin Corbin and I cannot thank you enough for the Maximus article which we will use in Sept. issue. The ~~Sept.~~^{Aug} issue was all directed to the bishops of the world.

I am right now at the Catholic Art Assoc. yearly meeting and some Benedictines were much impressed with the Communion article.

Jim Douglas is an outstanding - a daily communicant, most disciplined, strong and gentle. The best of all the peace group. Jim Forest gets better all the time. Tom Cornell is in deep trouble over a critically ill wife. The PAX group, Eitan Egan and Howard Everingham grow in numbers among the older, more conservative. All of us count on your prayers and continued work. God bless you always.

With love from us all -

Barth
