

BELLARMINE COLLEGE

2000 NORRIS PLACE

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY 40205

Sept 24, 1965.

Dear Tom,

Thanks once again for another great afternoon. Being with you people for a few hours should be inspiration enough for the next year and more.

Hildegard gave a beautiful talk to my class at Uroline Saturday morning on her 9 years' dealings with the Communists. The sisters in particular, a dozen in the class, responded beautifully to her. She flew on to Cincinnati yesterday afternoon.

Here are this morning's reports on what is becoming a deep polarization on Vietnam. In a way the situation in the U.S. is becoming even more dangerous than in Vietnam. I fear the reverberations of the Times News Service piece on David Miller and the ^{especially} Berrigans. It will certainly not reduce any pressures.

Sally grateful for Wisdom of the Desert.

Peace,
Jim