THE SEVEN STOREY MOUNTAIN

WITHIN A YEAR of its publication in 1948, The Seven Storey Mountain had sold hundreds of thousands of copies and became a classic for Catholics and non-Catholics alike. This unique spiritual autobiography is the account of the growing restlessness of a brilliant and passionate young man whose search for peace and faith eventually led him, at the age of twenty-six, to take vows in one of the most demanding religious orders, the Trappists.

At the monastery, within the “four walls of my new freedom,” Merton wrote his extraordinary testament—the document of a man who withdrew from the world only after he had fully immersed himself in it.
